

Almighty Father of All Things That Be

Ernest Edward Dugmore (1884, 1900)

David Sifford

Al - migh - ty Fa - ther For well we know this Then grant us, Lord, in

of all things that be,
wea - ry, soi - led earth
all things Thee to own,

Our life, our work, we
Is yet Thine own by To dwell with - in the con - se - crate to Thee, right of its new birth,

sha - dows of Thy throne,

Whose heav'n's de - clare Thy <sup>1</sup>Since Je - sus' cross was <sup>2</sup>To speak and to work, glo - ry from a - bove raised on Cal - va - ry with life from a - bove,

Whose earth be - low is Re - deemed it from <sup>3</sup>our Re - flec - ting Thine own wit - ness to Thy love.

fault and shame to Thee.
na - ture which is love.

<sup>4</sup>That so, re - deemed by Christ from sin and shame, Ha - llowed by Thy Spi - rit's clean - sing flame,

Our - selves, our work, and All our thoughts may be <sup>5</sup>Sa - cri - fi - ces ho - ly un - to Thee!

* Original:

<sup>1</sup> Since that great cross upreared on Calvary

<sup>2</sup> its

<sup>3</sup> to speak and work, to think and live and move

<sup>4</sup> That so, by Christ redeemed from sin and shame,

<sup>5</sup> a sacrifice acceptable to thee.